NOT A MEMBER OF THE URBANDALE CHAMBER YET?

We would love to have you!

The Urbandale Chamber of Commerce is a membership-based business organization designed to serve, protect and promote its members and the community. Membership in the Chamber is not bound by community boundaries, even though Urbandale is in our name! We know business doesn't stop at our community boundary, so membership shouldn't either. As one of the largest Chambers in the metro, the Urbandale Chamber is large in size but has a strong community culture where everyone feels welcome.

What does a Chamber do?

The Urbandale Chamber focuses on five pillars

1 CONNECTIONS

2 EDUCATION

3 MARKETING

4 ADVOCACY

5 WORKFORCE

A Chamber of Commerce has a strong focus on strengthening connections because people do business with those they know, like and trust. We provide a plethora of opportunities to get to know others and strengthen connections. In addition, we should be life-long learners because so much can change in the blink of an eye. If a business isn't keeping up, it can fall behind. The Chamber provides access to a number of educational opportunities for personal and professional development. Marketing is a fantastic benefit offered, and many of our benefits operate 24/7. We have strong SEO built into our database, which helps all members climb in Google rankings. In addition, all new members receive a 30-second radio commercial custom-recorded by Cumulus Radio and aired over two consecutive weekends. This is a great way for new members to introduce themselves to the community, advertise open positions or maybe an event. Workforce is an area the Chamber focuses on to help members find quality employees. We do this through free job postings pushed out on our website and social media, free resume distribution for resumes sent to us and through our youth job and apprenticeship fair and our KEY in Des Moines program designed to Keep Educated Youth in Des Moines.

Top 5 social media trends of 2022 for small businesses

By Joie Probst | Digital Marketing Strategist

In the two years since the onset of the pandemic, the use of social media has soared. Total social media users increased by almost 10% in 2021, hitting 4.55 billion people worldwide. As most of us continue to live a large chunk of our lives through screens, brands are taking note and shifting the way they promote themselves on these networks.

Whatever the industry or audience, businesses of all sizes can benefit from leveraging this growth to connect with their customers and improve their digital footprint. But social media moves fast. Keeping up with the latest trends and updates can be exhausting. Although we can never be certain what the next year will hold, we've put together a list of larger social media trends we are watching to serve as a guide as you build your 2022 strategy.

1. Short-form video reigns supreme

If the exponential rise of TikTok during the pandemic wasn't enough, just pop open any social app today and you'll see the impact video content has. With Meta (Facebook/Instagram's parent company) announcing "unprecedented competition" and prioritizing their version of short-form videos called Reels, it's time to face the facts — videos are here to stay.

Around 50% of people say they prefer video over other types of content, yet it only makes up 14% of the content on Facebook and 11% on Instagram. This creates a massive opportunity for brands to grow their video presence in 2022.

How can I use video for my small business?

Video is all about telling your story and building trust with your audience. Start by introducing who you are and what you do. Give a behind-the-scenes look at the day-to-day of your operations. Introduce your team or create educational content to engage potential customers. Try incorporating popular songs or sounds as it will increase your reach and likelihood to show up organically. Make sure to add closed captioning to all your videos for accessibility and to further engagement from those who don't keep their volume up!

The key is to use video strategically, as creating content can be a full-time job! Our tip: repurpose old videos, stories, or images to create new, engaging content without having to start from scratch.

2. More paid social advertising

More than 40% of respondents of Hootsuite's Social Trend survey indicated that the decline in organic reach and the need to spend more on paid advertising were their biggest challenges in 2022. Paid social advertising is one of the best ways for small businesses to break through the algorithm and directly target their ideal customers. Whether you are looking to increase engagement on your posts, create brand awareness, generate leads, or drive traffic to your website, paid social ads can help you stand out from the crowd.

But a one-size-fits-all approach won't work. Consumers are getting smarter when it comes to ads, and they don't want their experience to feel inauthentic as they are scrolling through their feeds. To be effective, marketers and businesses will need to work to create ads that are unique to each platform they are on. For example, what works on TikTok probably won't work on Facebook or LinkedIn. This is where getting creative and thinking outside the box will serve you well. Get clear on who your intended audience is and what platform they use. Create content that feels organic to that platform, then target them via paid social ads. Make sure to test and refine your ads to get the most out of your budget!

MORE ABOUT:

Webspec Design was founded in 2001 with a focus on service and quality. Jeremiah Terhark, our owner, began Webspec Design on his own as a young entrepreneur and has grown the company to a team of 30 employees located in Urbandale. The Webspec team works with businesses around Des Moines and throughout Iowa and has been named "Best Web Developer" in Des Moines five times. Webspec currently has 200 active clients that include small businesses and nonprofit organizations as well as larger clients, like Samsung and the State of Iowa.

3. Continued e-commerce growth

Out of sheer necessity during lockdown, many businesses both big and small were forced to pivot to creating online storefronts. Although people are beginning to shop in person again, this move to e-commerce shows no signs of slowing down.

As platforms like Facebook and Instagram prioritize online shopping, they've made adding storefronts to your business' profile easy through Commerce Manager. Here you can easily upload and keep track of your products manually, through a data feed/spreadsheet, or use a Facebook pixel to import items from your website or Shopify account. You can then decide whether you want customers to be directed to your site to complete the purchase or checkout through the app.

Although Facebook and Instagram still rank as the most effective platforms for e-commerce, in 2022, expect to see Snapchat, Pinterest, and TikTok start pushing more shopping functionality. You may want to consider adding your products to these platforms, especially for businesses targeting those under 30 years old.

4. Push to improve customer service

More shopping online means more reviews and customer interactions via social networks. According to Hootsuite's Social Trend Survey, nearly 60% of marketers say social customer care has increased in value for their organization over the past year. Customers are learning that response time via messaging on social media or leaving a review will sometimes elicit a faster response. Businesses that respond promptly and personally can help build trustworthy relationships with customers. However, it can turn ugly if public complaints aren't taken seriously or aren't dealt with in a timely manner. Stay on top of customer messages, reviews, and comments by organizing a streamlined plan so you aren't overwhelmed by inquiries.

5. Rise of (micro)influencer marketing

In 2022, influencer marketing isn't just for massive brands and celebrities. Small businesses can work with local or micro-influencers to promote their services and products. Often this small-scale approach has better results as these influencers generally serve a more niche and engaged audience. Partner with influencers to create organic-looking content on platforms like Instagram, Facebook, or TikTok. This can combat ads feeling fake and can reach new audiences that traditional social advertising might not.

Consider leveraging your employees as "influencers" for your brand; after all, they are your most trusted ambassadors. Encouraging employees to share their authentic experiences with your company or brand to their unique networks can be extremely beneficial. This can be especially helpful on platforms like LinkedIn to help recruit new employees or show off your company culture.

HOW TO CAPITALIZE ON SOCIAL TRENDS OF 2022

The beauty of social media is its customizability. What is successful for one brand might not work for another. In order to capitalize and stay ahead of your competition, you'll want to ask yourself, how can these trends help me reach my business goals?

Quality over quantity

Long gone are the days of needing to post 3-5 times a day on each platform to stay relevant. Sometimes less really is better. Creating never-ending streams of "meh" content is a waste of your and your followers' time. Getting clear which platforms are worth your energy and can help you meet your business goals is imperative.

You'll also want to invest in high-quality photos, graphics, and videos that help you stand out from other lackluster brands. This content can then be tweaked and refurbished across many different platforms to save you time. But be mindful of your audience's attention span (or lack thereof). As often as you can, deliver your content in shorter, more "snackable" pieces to not overload them in an already info-packed world.

Try something new

Part of the fun with social media is the short life cycle of posts, trends, and even platforms! Don't be afraid to step out of your comfort zone and jump on a trend or experiment with what you share. Try adding a short-form video with trending sounds to Facebook or Instagram or posting a quiz or poll to LinkedIn. Nobody knows your customers better than you — see what they respond to and run with it!

Nobody expects you to run your small business AND keep up with every new social media trend. Leave that to the experts. # Four ways to maximize your networking

The Urbandale Chamber has a wide variety of fantastic networking events, but, with so many great opportunities, it's not just about attending the networking events, but also what you do after each event, that will help your business. With a proper approach, networking can be a systematized way to expand your network in a healthy way.

You may know how to network, meet people, and start great conversations, but what do you do with all those business cards after a networking event? In order to optimize your results, follow these four rules for networking success!

genYYP

1.

Before you leave the event, take notes on the back of each business card you received in order to track the conversations you had and note the truly memorable individuals you met.

2.

When you get back to the office, connect with the people you met on LinkedIn. Send a message reminding them of your conversation at the event.

3.

Before the end of the week, send an email out to the individuals you felt were memorable and follow up about the conversation you had and the items that made them stand out to you.

4.

Ask someone out for coffee! Choose the most memorable individuals you met and offer to meet them for a coffee chat to get to know them better and expand on your conversation. Be cautious that you're not too pushy or sending them a sales pitch during this time. Remember, people work with people they know, like and trust, so be helpful and likable during the first stages of relationship development.

These four things will help you grow your network and get your name — and your business name — out into the community!

2021 BUSINESS OF THE YEAR Express Logistics

In October 2020, Express Logistics remodeled 22,000 square feet of commercial space using many local vendors to move to Urbandale. They are listed on the Inc. 5000 list for 2021 of the fastest growing private companies in America. This is the fifth time making the list and the only Urbandale company to make the list in 2021. Company culture is one of Express Logistics' top priorities and has earned the company the Top Workplace of Iowa award for seven consecutive years. Part of that culture is the priority of giving back. They celebrate their employees often by catering breakfast or lunch from Urbandale area, locally owned restaurants. The culture of giving expands into area nonprofits they support as well such as Meals from the Heartland, Urbandale Food Pantry, UCAN, Grimes Giving Tree and high school and college students through their internship program.

2021 CITIZEN OF THE YEAR Richard (Dick) Christian

Dick Christian has quietly helped hundreds of people behind the scenes for a number of years. He never seeks recognition for any of his good deeds. In fact, most of the time he specifically asks he not receive any recognition.

Dick, the former owner of Christian Photo in Urbandale, is actively involved in Kiwanis, Masons, and Shriners. He has served on the Planning and Zoning Commission for the City of Des Moines and has been a long-time active member of the Urbandale Chamber of Commerce.

2021 CONNECTOR OF THE YEAR Sandee Cook

The Connectors is the organization's welcoming arm. These volunteers assist in connecting members to one another and help new members learn about all of the benefits of being an Urbandale Chamber member. This group is instrumental in the success of the Chamber. Each year, a Connector who went above and beyond to create connections and assist with the success of the Chamber is selected. This year's award was given to long-time Urbandale resident and Connector Sandee Cook, Career Search Associates. Sandee has been a head hunter since 2015 and loves every moment. Previous to her career with Career Search Associates, she has 25+ years of human resources management experience. Sandee is a great resource for the Urbandale Chamber, and we are so thankful for her.

TWO HALL OF FAME RECIPIENTS NAMED

Congratulations to Miriam Cline and Iyleen Lemon, the Urbandale Chamber's Hall of Fame Recipients for 2021.

Miriam Cline

Miriam passed away in 2015 at the age of 94. She worked as a Director of Christian Education for 20 years. As a citizen of Urbandale, she became city hostess for the Urbandale Women's Club and called on newcomers to the community. She served on the City Council for 12 years. Accepting for Miriam was her daughter, Jeanne White.

Iyleen Lemon

Iyleen Lemon has been a resident of Urbandale for 66 years. For 40 of those years, she volunteered her time to make Urbandale a better place to live. In 1959, she became the first woman to be elected to the Urbandale City Council. Her dedication didn't end there. She also worked with a committee to plan the first Urbandale Library. # ADVOCATE FOR BUSINESS

The Urbandale Chamber of Commerce engages in advocacy at the local, state and federal level. Our role is to educate and advocate on issues impacting the business community. We are affiliates of the Greater Des Moines Partnership and participate in policy discussions. The Partnership's Government Policy Council develops priorities every year and works to gain support for those priorities from our state legislators and governor. Throughout the session, the GPC hosts monthly briefings at the Statehouse to keep members up to date on the progress of our legislative priorities.

At the local level, the Chamber's Board of Directors attend City Council meetings to keep abreast on City issues impacting the business community. The Chamber works with the City to ensure Urbandale remains a great place to do business.

Racing to grow your business?

Grow it by joining the Urbandale Chamber of Commerce!

I had the pleasure of serving as President of the Urbandale Chamber this last year. It was a great experience that provided me a solid understanding of the how the Urbandale Chamber works. And, it is working for you, the business! Here are some of the many awesome comments I heard through the year:

As a small business I struggled to find people of like-mind that I could talk to about my challenges. Now I have a network of "peers" that I rely on to help me. Thanks!

I just joined this year and I have to say, I know that my business is appreciated here in Urbandale!

I appreciate the in-formal networking groups like the AM Exchange. When I attend, I connect with my business neighbors and get a feel for what is going on in the community.

*The Chamber has made me feel like I am not alone.

*I found a network of contacts that I call my business family. Not only are they smart, they have a lot of fun!

*What I appreciate the most about the Urbandale Chamber is they keep good programming and evolve new, relevant programming that helps me.

Wow. I recommend continuing your membership or signing up today.

Then, let me know how we are doing! - Clint Dudley, Owner
